MAP TWO

Where They Come From

Homes of the Argonauts in the Book 1 catalogue, and of the people they meet

MAINLAND GREECE

◉ Each dot marks a home city or region, with the characters from it beneath.

PLACE NOTES

Heracles joins straight from Arcadia, after catching the Erymanthian boar. Tiryns, near Argos, is his home.

Peleus and Telamon grew up on Aegina. Peleus later settled in Phthia, Telamon on Salamis.

Orpheus was born near Pimpleia in Pieria. His father, Oeagrus, was a Thracian.

Zetes and Calais are sons of Boreas and Oreithyia, who lived in Thrace.

Phrixus is a son of Athamas, whose city was Orchomenus in Boeotia.

Amycus ruled the Bebrycians on the Asian side of the Propontis, near the Bosporus. Phineus lived on the Thracian shore.

NOT ON THESE MAPS

Circe: Aeaea, on the west coast of Italy (Monte Circeo).

Argus, builder of the Argo: Apollonius names his father, Arestor, but not his home.

Hylas: son of Theiodamas, king of the Dryopes.